

MASTERING DIVERSITY TRAINING & FACILITATION LEVEL ONE

FEBRUARY 17-19, 2012

FRIDAY 2PM-9PM;
SATURDAY 8AM-6PM;
SUNDAY 8AM-2PM

FACILITATOR: LEE MUN WAH

Too often we are afraid to begin a conversation about race and racism because we have had a bad experience or feel that we will say something wrong or hurtful. This workshop is particularly exciting and satisfying because it allows everyone the opportunity to practice talking to someone who is different from themselves in a compassionate and honest way. Participants will learn that they are not alone in their fears and that all of us lack a “model” of how to begin this type of conversation. The most important ingredient is our sincerity and our willingness to learn and understand each other.

We will practice sharing with one another through use of film, small group interactions, role plays and personal stories. Participants will learn:

- To notice the intent of our communications on other cultures and its impact
- Ways to respond compassionately and openly about diversity issues
- How to listen mindfully and with awareness
- How personal stories can affect our perceptions and attitudes
- Ways to create a sense of community through dialogue and stories
- How to work with conflict and hurt feelings when diversity issues are involved
